ESJAPED PREDICTED STORM.

The high northeast wind and snow flatries which prevailed yesterday even. ing brought about gloomy conditions. There was every reason to anticipate a wild night-if not a veritable blizzard. Siow was fling fast and furious after dark and was drifting in places, the wind in the meantime roaring dismally. Later sleet was pattering against the window paces and by midnight rain was falling. The Weather Burern had sent cut warnings yesterday annuncing the approach of a storm which was en route from the Gu f of Mexico.
